Whatever someone likes to do, it probably takes some money to be able to do it. Sometimes finding the money is a problem for people with developmental disabilities. The Arc of Butler County wants to help!

“Even-the-Score” is a yearly golf outing sponsored by The Arc. Even-the-Score raises money that The Arc awards to people with disabilities to help pay for recreation, leisure activity, fun things to do, and activities that are personally enriching to the applicant.

See the following Guidelines about how this works. Download the Application Form so you can apply.
