

Gentle Teaching: An Overview

Facilitated by: Trish Musnuff, Staff Development Coordinator, Videos with John McGee Ph.D.

Sponsored by: Butler County Board of Developmental Disabilities

There is no cost for this training

When: September 22nd, 2010, 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Registration at 8:45 a.m.

Where: Butler Co. DD Administration Building, 1910 Fairgrove Ave.,
Hamilton, OH 45011

Target Audience: Anyone who Supports Individuals with Developmental Disabilities

Purpose: Gentle Teaching is a positive practice approach centered around a set of values, goals and strategies that teach valuing and active engagement. Gentle Teaching asks caregivers to look at themselves and their spirit of gentleness to find ways to express warmth and unconditional valuing toward those who are most vulnerable. Participants will learn what it means to see the people they support as whole and good and how to give each person a sense of self-dignity as a means of regaining personal control over their lives.
